
Summerville First Baptist plans Christmas Celebrations

With the addition of a newly arrived pastor, members of Summerville First Baptist Church continue the month filled with Christmas celebrations. A blended traditional and praise service of worship will be held this Sunday morning at 11 a.m. with sermon by Senior Pastor Sean Wegener titled “Singing to Her Boy: The Theology Behind Mary’s Christmas Carol.”

During the evening worship service at 6 p.m., the SFB Children’s Choir will present a musical play “The Christmas Dream Team Parade – an Almost Cancelled Christmas.” According to Minister of Music, Don Groce, “The musical is a funny story of three children discovering the true meaning of Christmas in a dream sequence where they encounter a drummer boy, a cowboy, a French chef, an elf and an angel who show them the true meaning of Christmas. It features a delightful update of the twelve spiritual days of Christmas.” The Children’s Choir is under the direction of Teresa Groce, assisted by Paula Easter and Don Groce.

Christmas Eve morning will offer a worship service at 11 a.m. with guest speaker from Fort Worth, Texas, Dr. David Allen, Dean of Preaching, Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. Observance of the Lord’s Supper will be on New Year’s Eve, December 31st, during the morning worship service.

Everyone is invited to attend these events and those looking for a church home this Christmas season are invited to contact Pastor Sean Wegener at 706-857-1215. Summerville First Baptist Church is located at 125 Georgia Avenue in downtown historic Summerville just across from Summerville City Hall. Handicap accessible entrances are located on Georgia Avenue and at the church office entrance on Union Street.

For additional information, contact the church office at 706-857-1215.